

World Book Day is a highlight of the year for Leigh St. Mary's. This year's whole school text was The Midnight Panther by Poonam Mistry.

This beautifully-illustrated book shares themes of belonging, similarities and difference and being that little bit braver! All children produced a writing outcome from the text and artwork was made for displays around school.

